

Standing Stone, PA Facility

34640 Route 6 Highway, Wysox, PA. 18854

- 10,000 BPD total pre-treat capacity physical/chemical systems including one circular clarifier, one lamella clarifier, membrane filter press and one double decanter centrifuge.
- 5,000 BPD titanium crystallization unit producing 80,000 tons per annum of sodium chloride
- Eureka patented “dewaste” process systems including IX exchange equipment, Membrane Bio reactors, Blowers and Reverse Osmosis units (2) each rated at between 500 and 1000 bbls per day capacity
- Discharge permit to Susquehanna River (only operating Marcellus discharge in state of PA)
- (2) 35,000-barrel capacity double wall steel storage tanks and (20 each) 500 bbl. Steel single wall tanks plus pumps, mixers, controllers and level gauges and sensors for all.
- 40,000 square foot pre-engineered Butler building built in 2013
- 9,000 square foot shelter structure with in-floor radiant heat
- 9KW industrial electrical service with two transformers and Kurk key
- 40+ acre land parcel
- Stream discharge or intake line to Susquehanna River including all permits and ROW's
- All operating permits are transferable to the new owner or lessor